

The Avonex Therapy Support Programme (ATSP)

ATSP gives you free ongoing support during your Avonex therapy. It's available from the moment you begin your treatment and you can sign-up to join at any time. We have designed the programme around you to be as convenient as possible.

- Run by a team of trained advisors, ATSP is regular telephone support at times to suit you.
- An Avonex advisor will telephone you to arrange a convenient time for us to call you during the first 12 months of your Avonex therapy.
- You will be able to reschedule, cancel or arrange further calls as and when you need them.
- You can talk about anything at all relating to your MS or Avonex treatment during these calls. The team are trained to provide the information and reassurance you need.
